

Thompson Performing Arts Series at the C&N Amphitheater

Performer Application

The Thompson Performing Arts Series is presented by Doylestown Township and is held at the C&N Amphitheater in Central Park, Doylestown, PA.

This series provides a complement of performances that represent a variety of musical, theatrical and other genres with the intent of providing the Doylestown, and regional community, with the best possible free summer program. Over the years many local, regional, national and even international performers have presented a wide variety of cultural and artistic styles. It is only through the support and generosity of sponsors and performers that we are able to provide this much-loved, “free” family-friendly opportunity

Due to the high number of performer inquiries, we are asking all interested performers to submit a Performer Application.

All applications received will be considered, and if selected, a Performer Agreement and W-9 must be signed.

Sound equipment, lights and sound technicians are NOT included in performance contracts and must be provided by the artist/group.

All applicants will receive a response once bookings are complete. Applications NOT selected will be retained in the event of future opportunity.

Applications, support materials and available video/audio will be reviewed. Applications will be evaluated according to the following criteria:

- Performance quality and Appropriateness (family friendly)
- Quality of support materials (for evaluation)
- Ability to provide a 2-hour presentation. At a minimum 90 minutes is required, excluding breaks.
- Self-provided production, including sound, including sound, instruments, supplemental lighting, and other props as needed.
- Willingness to reschedule in event of inclement weather.
- Reasonable booking fees. Subject

Submission of the Application does NOT guarantee acceptance
